Oh my goodness, oh my goodness! I'm so excited, I'm dancing in my seat! :) We hoped they would pull through! Yes, I'll be there to help on Friday. I've copied you on my request to be out March 26. Yay, yay, yay! Tell the team I'm super proud of them when you see them. :) I'll check my calendar about the other days over the coming weeks. Things are starting to get hairy with prom, but we can squeeze something out. I probably shouldn't leave my site until my regular 3:30 time, however. I'd hate to be reprimanded for missing time at my library, but I'll get there. Wahoo!

The students go to regional competition on Monday the 26th in Durham. Would you be able to help us get ready? You have a medal here. Diana called out the names of all the coaches and included you.

We will practice on Friday this week. Then, Tuesday, Thurs., and Friday. Then the same. They really need to reread and read..... Martha missed The Ghost in the Tokaido Inn (she said from). So we lost 3 points. However, the questions will be more difficult next time.

Thanks for all of your help. Elaina wanted to know where you were. I told them that your school could not afford a sub for you.
